The objectives of this task are:

- ✓ To be able to communicate effectively and appropriately in different contexts.
- ✓ To greater recognise the (positive) key words of a teaching-learning plan.

02 What will teachers learn?

This task will give teachers the chance to measure their expectations regarding the lessons taught. Their communication skills in class or blended learning will be validated through a before and after process on a list of key words.

03 Tasks and procedure

The procedure for this micro-task makes it easy to quickly assimilate the necessary steps as follows.

Step 1: Before teaching a lesson, teachers prepare in advance a list of 5 to 10 key words using the Planning Worksheet below, taking into account the content of that lesson.

Worksheet Planning – Key words (5 to 10)
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Step 2: This task should be integrated as a habit for a week or two depending on the frequency of the lessons taught by the teacher. At the end of each lesson, the teachers ask the students to share their key words according to their experience with the respective lesson without reading the own list of key words prepared in advance.

Step 3: The teachers write down the students' key words and compare them with their key words to measure the effectiveness of communication when teaching the lesson.
